Questions & Answers Regarding the 2015- 2016 Early Release Schedule

Q: What is the purpose of early release Wednesdays?

A: Early release Wednesdays will provide important opportunities for teachers to engage in professional learning along with collaborative and individual planning. This time is valuable, as it will support school and district efforts to continuously improve teaching and learning for all children.

Q: When will early release Wednesdays begin?

A: Wednesday, August 19, this is the second week of school. They will continue every week until school dismisses in May.

Q: How will the start and release times be affected by this change?

A: EFFECTIVE FOR THE 2015-2016 SCHOOL YEAR: ALL early dismissal days at Sculptor will begin at normal time 8:45 a.m. and release at 2:00 p.m.

Q: What arrangements for School-Aged Child Care will be made to accommodate early release Wednesdays?

A: Staffing hours for School-Aged Child Care will be adjusted to accommodate the increased need for elementary school supervision at the close of early release Wednesdays. A special rate for the Wednesday early release days only will be available and released prior to the beginning of school.
